CONTACT SHEET

Callan has been helping our clients select investment managers for more than three decades. Our manager search process goes beyond the cursory look at past performance by incorporating both quantitative and qualitative evaluations of an investment management organization.

Callan conducts approximately 150 to 200 searches per year across all asset classes. Over the last five years, we have conducted over 900 searches, representing more than $160 billion in assets. Each search is tailored to meet our client's investment objectives and undergoes a disciplined process—a blend of quantitative and qualitative evaluation and quality peer oversight that is unique to Callan.
